

4th Grade Summer Reading

The summer is finally here! Congratulations you are now on your way to become an official 4th grader!

I want to make sure your precious brains keep learning and developing during your summer break so I have assigned a very fun summer reading for you.

Book Title: Save Me a Seat

Author: Sarah Weeks

This book is about two boys who build a friendship after they realize they both have the same enemy, the biggest bully in their class. This is a great book teaching us about standing together, making new friends, and accepting one another's differences.

I am only requiring you to read the above-mentioned book and complete a book report for it, but here are three other books that I'm sure you will enjoy!

Sr. Tamam's 4th Grade Bucket Books List:

- The Hundred Dresses by Eleanor Estes
- The Lemonade War by Jacqueline Davies
- Boy at the Back of the Class by Onjali Q Rauf

Enjoy your break and see you in September!
